NEW GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

A Strong Combination that Proposes to Supply Glendale and Tropico with Gas and Electricity

The Southern California Gas Circuit company, which promised us gas, over two years ago, having failed to show its good faith by its works, can no longer be depended upon to solve for Glendale and Tropico the problem of light. Fortunately for the community a few of the largest local subscribers for that company's stock, as soon as they become convinced that the above named concern could not be depended upon, took steps to secure even better results for this section than the other company had promised. We are now authorized to announce that a strong combination of local men has been formed consisting of Frank Campbell, L. C. Brand, J. F. McIntyre and D. Griswold, who propose to form a company which will furnish both electricity and gas, both of which are absolute requisites in an up-to-date community. The preliminary agreement has been drawn up, the purposes being set forth as follows:

"To organize a corporation to construct a gas plant and distributing system for Tropico, Glendale and vicinity and to supply such places with gas —also to purchase the present electric lighting system and make needed extensions to the same." Capital stock $150,000, of which sum Mr. L. C. Brand guarantees $100,00 upon the condition that $20,000 worth be subscribed by residents of the territory to be supplied; as it is desired that the enterprise shall be entirely controlled by local citizens. Shares of stock are to have a par value of $100, and it is proposed that every purchaser of stock shall receive dollar for dollar of his subscription in six per cent interest bearing gold bonds secured by first mortgage on the company's property. All funds are to be paid into a reliable trust company and will be paid out only for the purpose of constructing such proposed plant and its extensions as required as work progresses. The electric plant now owned by Mr. Brand is to be purchased from him at a valuation to be fixed by a committee of competent appraisers to be selected by the stockholders. The price for gas at first will probably be fixed at $1.25 for the first thousand feet and $1.00 for subsequent thousands. It will be the policy of the company, however, to reduce the cost to consumers as rapidly as possible, as with growing patronage this can easily be done, and service will be extended to any section where there are a sufficient number of consumers to guarantee an income of six per cent. on the service—in other words, as fast as the people require light and power, it will be supplied on this basis. The combination of an electric plant with a gas company should be one that will secure to our people the best service at the lowest rates and the strong names at the head of the proposition is a guarantee of not only honest but efficient management. As stated a fortnight ago the canvass made for these gentlemen throughout this territory resulted in securing the names of over 700 consumers for the product of a gas plant, a sufficient number to argue success at the outset when the company is ready to do business. As soon as the subscription is secured for the $20,000, the company will begin work.

Mr. Gordon, a practical gas man of several years' experience, is associated with the above named gentlemen in the enterprise, and it has been by his efforts that the subscription list of prospective consumers has been secured.

SECRETARY.

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS 1863.

Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any other nation, so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who have given their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hollow this ground. The brave men living and dead who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED.

On Feb. 9th Mr. and Mrs. W. S. May, of Tenth street, celebrated their tenth anniversary of their marriage by a pleasant party at which a large number of friends were present. The house was attractively decorated with pepper boughs in which were interspersed tin utensils and ornaments in appropriate suggestiveness. Many presents were received by the host and hostess, resulting in stocking the kitchen with a full supply of tinnery. Mr. Norman Evans contributed instrumental music in his usual happy style, refreshments wer served and the evening was enjoyed greatly by all participating, among whom were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Imler, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Long, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wellner, Mr. and Mrs. C. Riffenberick, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Andrews, Mrs. J. H. McDonell and brother, Mrs. M. Colman and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Tower, Mr. C. J. Culver and the following guests from Oklahoma: Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fares, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Quick.

THE POSTOFFICE.

The service given to the public at the postoffice is becoming more satisfactory day by day as the officials and carriers become better acquainted with the people and the territory. Mr John R. McGee, in charge of the office, and Mr. L. O. Sheets, representing the superintendent of city delivery of the Los Angeles office, are exerting themselves to make everything about the new arrangement satisfactory to the patrons of the office. C. E. Hutchinson and T. E. Vandiver are the carriers.

The rumors to the effect that the Tropico office is to be abolished have no foundation in fact and the effects of free delivery there as in Glendale will only be a more satisfactory service, for which no sacrifice of anything worth having is required. Before free delivery was established, mail put in the Glendale postoffice at 8 a. m. would not reach Tropico until 5 p.m. Now it is only necessary that the people in that vicinity should furnish the postoffice authorities with their street numbers and prompt delivery will be made.

GIRLS' STUNT PARTY.

The High School girls entertained their friends with a novel and jolly stunt party at I. O. O. F. hall last Saturday night. In spite of the rain a hundred girls were present in fancy dresses of every description. There were coquettes and clowns, colonial dames and bad boys and all the familiar characters of Mother Goose. The absence of electric lights and masculine stars did not diminish the pleasure of the evening; happy substitutes were found. Between the dances were introduced jigs, recitations, songs and acrobatic feats. After an hour of fun luncheon was served from dainty baskets and then dancing was continued until midnight. Mrs. Alex. Mitchell furnished the music and Mrs. Goode, Mrs. Pulliam and Mrs. Ryan, acted as patronesses.

Local Happenings

Dancing at Odd Fellows hall—if you dance ever, dance tonight.

Mrs. McLean of Fifth street is sojourning in the north, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Temple are entertaining Mr. Temple's mother, recently arrived from Tennessee.

A refined dance for refined people at Odd Fellows hall tonight. 5c per dance.

Miss Margaret Cross, who is now located at Cucamonga, visited her home in Glendale, Sunday last.

Miss M. A. Cross, whose desk has recently been located at the city hall, has moved to the Bank of Glendale, where she will do typewriting and stenographic work.

Be patient with the reign of the rain —and keep your eyes and senses open for the transformation of our "Porto de cielo" when the sun shines. "Gate of Heaven," the padres called our lovely valley.

There will be a dance given at the new K. P. hall tonight, on Brand boulevard, by Ward's Orchestra of Glendale. This will be the first dance given in the new hall, we believe, and will no doubt be an enjoyable affair.

Be sure to attend the dance tonight at Odd Fellows hall. Good music and a good time.

We have an interesting communication from Mr. N. C. Burch, of Tropico, entitled "What Tillman Was Up To," which will appear in our next issue. Mr. Burch writes in regard to his personal knowledge of land transactions in Oregon.

Mr. E. L. Quick and family from Avery, Oklahoma, with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ziegler of the same place, are visting Mrs. W. S. May. Mr. Quick is a brother and Mrs. Ziegler a sister of Mrs. May. They report everything in Oklahoma covered with snow at the time they left there.

Among recent arrivals in Glendale are Mr. and Mrs. Gibson P. Kelly, who are located on East First street. Mr. Kely is an old and well-known newspaper man, connected formerly with the Philadelphia Press and other prominent papers. He is a sufferer from asthma and hopes to be benefited by residence in Glendale.

Dr. E. A. Belford of Central avenue entertained at dinner last Sunday Mr. John Paul, a prominent contractor of Barberton, Ohio, Mr. Harry W. Alcorn, city engineer of the same place, and Mr. Geo. T. Holman of Casa Verdugo. On Tuesday Messrs. Paul and Alcorn were treated to a Spanish dinner at Casa Verdugo by Dr. Belford and Mr. Holman.

Glendalians are terrible "jiners!" The new Knights of Pythias lodge opened recently with one hundred members. The same number figures in the membership list of the Glendale Country Club, and also on the membership roll of the pioneer club of the valley, the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which has had new names added every single regular meeting since the first one of the season, held Oct. 13th.

Mr. Lynch, city engineer, has almost completed a map of Glendale and a large portion of the territory surrounding our city, which is the most complete map of this section that has ever been made. It takes in the Vineyard tract as far west as Pacific street, south as far as Tropico avenue, eastward to a point half a mile beyond Glendale city limits, and northward to Burchett street. Every street, subdivision and lot is shown and many doubtful lines have been verified by personal survey and patient investigation. It covers an area of six feet by four. It is true in detail and a most valuable piece of work.

NEW HOME ON SOUTH LOUISE STREET.

One of the neatest and most attractive of the many new homes recently built in the Southwest part of the city is the spacious bungalow now being erected at the corner of Ninth and Louise streets for Albert Randolph.

W. S. May, who has built a large number of the residences in that section of the city is the designer and builder of this handsome home. He has used cobblestone in porch and chimney to make the exterior attractive. The convenience of the interior arrangement is a delight to the housekeepr and a joy to the entertainer. The artistic fireplace in the cozy den at the end of the living room adds to the cheeriness of the place. When complete the house will cost about $2000.

CITY TRUSTEES.

All present except Mr. Grant. Mr. Frank Campbell and Mr. Gordon addressed the board in behalf of a proposed gas and electric company to serve the whole valley.

Demands as follows were referred to the finance committee: Glendale Light & Power Co., January lights, $2.55; T. O. Pierce, keeping horse, $26.00; C. M. Doyle, account delinquent taxes, $25.00; C. W. Brashear, labor street department, $27.40; W. L. Nelson, inspecting, $10.00.

Demands 935 to 942, inclusive, and 945 previously referred, were reported back approved.

An appeal from the assessment on Brand boulevard between Sixth street and the southerly city limits, for street work, signed by E. F. Parker and others, was received and placed on file, date of hearing to be set later. Requests of C. W. Brashear that the city pay the assessment for street work on certain lots specified, said lots having been sold to the city for delinquent taxes. Referred to the city attorney. Report of tax collector on delinquent taxes accompanied with list of property sold and certificates of sale. Referred to committee of the whole. Report of city engineer on bids for the improvement of Isabel and Kenwood streets was received. On Isabel street, bid of Lapp Gifford & Co., amounted to $3524.19; on Kenwood, $4441.80. Accepted.

Trustee Blackburn offered resolutions which were adopted awarding contracts as above.

The city engineer was instructed to procure estimate on the cost of the following municipal improvement: An electrical lighting plant and other works, property or structures necessary to obtain an electric lighting system for the city and the acquisition of land necessary for the same. The city attorney was instructed to prepare for publication notice of hearing on the protests of assessments on Brand boulevard; hearing to be had at city hall, Wednesday, March 3, at 2 p. m. A communication in regard to street trees on Fourth street was referred to street superintendent.

A deed was received from Carrie E. Russell et al conveying land necessary for the extension of Eighth street east from Grenada street.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Championship Game in Boys' Basketball.

The Glendale High School Basketball team, having won the championship in the Suburban League, play on Saturday, Feb. 13, at 2:30 p. m. on the Glendale High School court with the Fullerton team, which has won the championship of the Orange county league.

This game is the semi-finals in the contest for the championship of Southern California.

The Fullerton "center" is six feet seven inches tall. A royal contest may be expected. The game is held under the management of the Amateur Athletic League of Southern California, which requires that an admission of twenty-five cents be charged. That will, therefore, be the charge for all adults, both ladies and gentlemen. A special rate has been made for grammar school pupils who may secure tickets at ten cents each.

The home team is in fine condition for the game and expect to win. If defeated, however, it will be because the other team can outplay our boys at their best.

Mr. Spencer of Harvard, and Mr. Braiden of Occidental are the officials for the day.

Please wear your tickets in sight.

Feb. 10th the Boys' Basketball team played the Occidental Preps at Occidental, winning from them by a score of 51 to 15.

The following is from the Los Angeles Times:

The Los Angeles High School girls' basketball team defeated Glendale High School yesterday afternoon on the Los Angeles High court, by a score of 26 to 6.

The visitors played an excellent game, their team work being exceptionally good, but their weakest point was the inability to throw baskets. Many tries were made by Miss Good, but she was not able to put the ball through the basket on a field try except once in the last third. Four free tries were thrown by her in the first and second third.

* * *

Miss Good was the star player for the visiting team, being especially good in the field plays. Miss Farrell and Miss Ellias also played a good game and often sent the ball in the direction of their goal.

* * *

Length of thirds, ten minutes; referee, Miss McLean; umpire, Clayton; scorer, Miss Rogers; timer, Cooper.

Field goals: Rosenthal 1, Buchanon 11. Good 1. Free goals: Buchanon 2, Good 4.

OPENING OF ST. MARK'S RECTORY AND GUILD HALL.

Although the rain had been coming down all day and continued to do so through the evening, the rector of St. Mark's, as he stood on the platform in the auditorium of the structure built through his efforts, ably aided by his congregation, must have experienced a natural and commendable thrill of pride as he looked down upon the large audience gathered to assist in the informal dedication of the combined rectory and guild hall on the corner of Jackson and Third street, Friday evening. All through the wettest day of the season the ladies kept coming to the rectory with bundles and baskets containing the edibles for the supper that was to inaugurate the auspicious occasion. And that the supper was a success financially and gastronomically, goes without saying. A hundred people or more enjoyed to the utmost the excellent dinner and tarried at the tables as long as allowable, enjoying the social feature of the occasion. The rector, Rev. G. S. Fackenthal, made an ideal toastmaster (although not called so on the program) and gave to the occasion the keynote of good fellowship and social cheer, at the same time expressing with appropriate feeling his full appreciation of the good work done by the faithful workers who put up the building. All who were not in this manner included in Mr. Fackenthall's expressions of appreciation were embraced in the appreciative speech made by Mr. Edgar W. Pack, warden of St. Mark's. Dr. D. W. Hunt, another prominent member of the church, spoke in the same vein. The Rev. S. L. Ward, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, added his tribute in a jocose talk full of the spirit of the occasion. The Rev. Dyer spoke interestingly in a reminiscent vein of his experience in the St. Mark's missionary field in Glendale twenty years ago. Mr. Ezra Parker and Mr. J. C. Sherer spoke briefly in response to the call of the chairman. The musical program was excellent, limited space only preventing mention in detail.

The occasion will be long remembered as marking most agreeably an important era in the history of St. Mark's. The building contains home rooms for the rector, and the auditorium, which is more home-like than the ordinary public hall, will seat 250 or 300 people. Both St. Mark's and Glendale are to be congratulated upon its completion.

BOOST—DON'T KNOCK!

There are lots of pretty nice things about Glendale—the Beautiful—not the least of which is the large percentage of Boosters! It is noticeable to the veriest stranger how one runs into them on the boulevard, on busy Fourth street, on the avenue, and elsewhere. Boosters are thick in our city hall, in the banks, and especially are they noticeable in the vicinty of real estate offices. And what a good impression it makes! There surely is nothing better for a town than your really enthusiastic dyed-in-the-wool booster, who has no breath to waste on the question "Is vice protected on Third street?" The booster can tell you all about our numerous new railroads, realty swaps, the miles of new streets, number of new houses, our parked boulevards, our floral parkawys, public drinking fountain, municipal lighting plant,—oh, we have not the space—go ask a booster. He (or she) can tell you more in forty winks than, unassisted, you ever dreamed of. The Booster will tell you the truth! Why, the other day one of those old-time kickers—but he was hustled into a box car and taken to Los Angeles to join the ranks. If he rises to generalship we will publish his name, or his obituary. A few of us remember the time when the obdurate, obstreperous kicker made himself numerous on both sides of the foolish Dixie-like line running north and south and through our middle, which he himself established—to hang his kicks on. Peace to his bones! The Booster reigns, and lovely Glendale, heaven bless her always, grows apace.

On account of the rain last Sunday the Catholics were not able to hold services in their new church, which was postponed until next Sunday at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Burton entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church at her home on Second street, Thursday afternoon. After the adjournment of business delicious and dainty refreshments were served.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.

The rain has interfered with building operations during the past week. The concrete foundation work on the new Filger block has just been begun and on the Bank block is about finished. Finishing touches are being put on the Cole and Dick block, which will soon be ready for occupancy.

There were issued six permits from the building inspector's office during the past week, the principal ones being Mrs. A. V. Jester on Chestnut street, Lomita Park, 5-room cottage to cost $1200.

W. H. Martin is erecting a 6-room 1½ story residence on Fifth near Glendale avenue, costing $1200.

J. Ehman is building a 4-room California house on Third and Verdugo road, costing $500.

Mrs. De Normandie is building a 4-room California house on Seventh near Glendale avenue, costing $300.

T. O. Pierce is remodeling his livery barn to the amount of $500.

R. Verdugo is building a small barn on his place on Adams street near Third.

Mr. John Goetz, who recently bought five or six lots of Mr. Brigham on boulevard opposite Ninth street has plans prepared for a six-room house the construction of which will begin soon.

THE WEATHER.

There were over two inches of rain added to the season's fall by the storm of Saturday and Sunday last, but not content with that performance the weather clerk turned the water on again Wednesday night; the fall for that storm up to Friday morning being about an inch and a half more. February is about the wettest month in the year in this section, so that the prospect is good for a season's fall of over 20 inches. As it is, the quantity of rain up to date is sufficient to guarantee abundant crops throughout the state. Sunday afternoon the heavy rainfall in the mountains sent down a flood of water in the Arroyo Seco to the Los Angeles river, causing the washing out wholly or in part of several piers belonging to the various railroad bridges over the arroyo between Los Angeles and Garvanza. The result was that the Salt Lake railroad company as well as the Santa Fe suffered considerable loss and were put out of business for 24 hours or more. No trains came to Glendale over the Salt Lake road for three or four days, causing some inconvenience to lumber yards particularly.

MEMBERSHIP MEETING OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

A meeting of the members of the Christian church is called at G. A. R. hall for Sunday, the 14th, at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of electing trustees of the church looking toward incorporation. A full attendance of members is urged as a majority must be in attendance and vote for these trustees in order to make this election legal.

GLENDALE, CAL., FEBRUARY 13, 1909

There was something the matter with our dates last week; we named Feb. 16th as Lincoln's birthday, and spoke of another event as to occur on Friday, the 11th. Hereafter we promise to defer to the opinion of the drug store's almanac.

The United States has withdrawn its protection from Cuba and the island republic of the Antilles, at last, stands alone. The Cubans are a people and of a race unused to popular government, if it succeeds there, there is hope even for the Philippines ultimately

The greatest battleship in the world, named the Delaware, in honor of the second smallest state in the union, was launched at Newport News, Feb. 6th. The arrangement of her main guns will permit of a broadside 25 per cent. greater than that of any warship in existence. The cost is $3,987,000.

The San Francisco Argonaut persists in reminding the public that the committee appointed in that city three years ago to take charge of the fund contributed for the relief of earthquake sufferers, still has $300,000 on hand and seems not disposed to let go, even for so worthy a purpose as the relief of stricken Messina.

The American battleship fleet left Gibraltar on Feb. 6th and is due at Hampton Roads, Va., on Washington's birthday, the 22d, from which port it sailed December 16th, 1907, on its earth-encircling voyage, making during the cruise 45,000 miles, and, barring accidents that may yet occur, in better conditon in every way than when it stared from home.

Eight Belgian diamond cutters recently came to the United States, lured hither by stories of high wages paid to men in their special sphere of skillfulness. Then the diamond cutters' union (recently come over themselves) protested against the admission of the Belgian immigrants and asked, even peremptorily, it is said, that the department of commerce and labor send them immediately abck to the country where the hares come from! Which the minions of the department refused to do, so there are now three hundred and eight diamond cutters in this country instead of the three hundred within the union!

GRAND JURY REPORT.

The report of the Los Angeles County Grand Jury that has been in session most of the time during the past six months, is made public. Most of its time has been spent in investigation of the charges made by Mr. Woolwine against Mayor Harper and other city officials of "Graft" and the "Protection of Vice." The report seems to fail in sustaining the charges, although six members of the jury make an unofficial report of their own dissenting from the verdict of the majority. In regard to other matters a number of valuable recommendations are made in regard to the better management of county affairs and some of the actions of the board of supervisors are pretty severely criticised.

THE STORM WATER.

The floods of water that came down from the mountains last Sunday ceased to flow before any damage was done to property in this section. What would have been the result had the heavy rainfall continued a few hours longer, no one knows. Our asphalted streets, however, stood the test well. A torrent of water flowed down Adams street for a while, which before that thoroughfare was improved, would have washed deep ditches on the side of the street, as it has done in times past. It is quite possible that we shall not have high water this season again and on the other hand it is liable to come at any time during the next two months. The fixing of an official course for the storm water from Sycamore canyon has been too long delayed and should be taken up and settled as soon as possible.

Under existing conditons every property owner considers himself justified in turning aside the stream when he can do so, regardless of his neighbor, or the city at large.

This condition should not be longer tolerated. The natural course of the stream should be determined and the water confined to it, being carried off in pipes, concrete ditches or in any other effectual way that will do as little damage as possible to private property. That there will be strenuous objections made by interested parties to any route that may be selected, is to be expected, and of course any damage done to individuals should be paid for by the community. The plan of former City Engineer Postle for the opening of a wide street along the Childs tract line, would probably have solved the problem, but the expense of the project as outlined by Mr. Postle rendered it impracticable. We believe that the street could be opened, however, and arranged to carry off the storm water without damage to adjoining property and at considerable less expense than the plan of Mr. Postle required. We understand also that certain interested property owners in that section are not now opposed to the opening of a street along this line, as they were when it was first proposed. It is to be hoped that they are now ready to do everything possible to secure the opening of this thoroughfare, which in itself, aside from all question in regard to storm water, is becoming more and more necessary as time passes.

"THE SOVEREIGN STATE."

A good deal of nonsense is appearing in some of the newspapers nowadays about the "sovereign state," its rights, privleges, prerogatives, etc. A recent editorial in the Sacramento Union, which is pleased to refer to President Roosevelt as a "busy-body," is one example of many. The question of "state sovereignty" was settled at Appomatox forty-four years ago, and no one familiar with our history should be foolish enough to attempt to reopen it. The state is not "sovereign" and in the nature of our union as a nation never can be while such union lasts. In any matter that comes in conflict with national laws or is opposed to the letter and spirit of any treaty with a foreign power which the nation has entered into, the paramount interests of the whole country must be recognized and admitted. California as a state has no "rights" in regard to schools or anything else, under such conditions. It was by the proper surrender of such "rights" that it was made possible for the United States to become a nation and to take the supreme position that it now occupies among the nations of the world. The opinion seems to be held by many well-meaning persons that the state has the right to exercise entire control over its public schools and to segregate the students therein along any lines that may seem to it best. This right exists only within certain limitations and is certainly non-existent in the present instance where in the opinion of some misguided "statesman," it is desirable to separate them on lines of racial distinction. It would be admissable for the state to separate white children from negroes in the schools, because the latter have no nation behind them to resent it and because as a general rule they are our fellow citizens; but no such right applies to the Japanese, because the United States has a treaty with Japan guaranteeing to its citizens within our borders all the "rights of the most favored nation." It would even be permissible for the state to segregate its citizens from aliens in the schools, because by so doing all aliens would receive the same treatment and none could claim that they were being discriminated against. But the law passed by the California assembly to exclude "Orientals" from the schools of the state, is so clearly discriminating in its character (other aliens being admitted) and the efforts of the president to have its adoption reconsidered are so patriotic and commendable, that the wonder grows upon us that any one worthy of American citizenship can do less than uphold him in his laudable efforts.

ANTI-JAPANESE LEGISLATION.

Mr. Drew of Fresno, who since becoming innoculated with the anti-Jap microbe, sees everything in connection with the subject through jaundiced eyes, seems to have lost his poise entirely and has taken to making statements which will not bear investigation as to their truthfulness. One of his latest is the assertion that his kind of legislation is opposed by just two classes in California, namely: Those who are "dominated by commercialism and those who are actuated by religious sentiment." These two classes, doubtless, are opposed to his ideas of statesmanship as applied to this question, but if he was at all familiar with the sentiment of the people at large, he would find that the opposiiton to any legislation applying exclusively to the Japanese, is based upon other motives in addition to the two named. He would find that the opponents of this agitaion, oppose it, first, on patriotic grounds. They believe that the interests of the nation are paramount to those of the state if there is possible any conflict between them. Second, they oppose it on moral grounds, believing that common justice in this day and genration demands that a people who have in no way offended us, should be accorded fair treatment regardless of race or color. They do not believe that the events of the last few years have demonstrated that the Japanes are an inferior race, or if that should be admitted, they fail to see how our own superiority is shown by acts of discrimination against them.

* * *

The solid stand of the Southern California delegation, headed by Speaker Stanton, against the proposed anti-Japanese legislation, is pleasant to look upon. We believe that the delegation correctly represents the opinion of the people of Southern California in regard to the matter, and we hope and believe that it is in accordance with the sentiment of the people at large throughout the state. If it is true that the people of California north of Tehachapi favor this ill-timed legislation, then it is further evidence of a line of division between the people of Northern California and those in the southern part of the state, which will some time result in that division of the state which has frequently been advocated by a few of our public men in times past. The physical differences between the north and the south seem to result in differences as to the point of view occupied by the people of the two sections of the state; differences which have occasionally in times past seemd almost irreconcilable. San Francisco, however, on account of its furnishing such a large proportion of the population of central and northern California, easily dominates it; and it is perhaps unjust to attempt to hold all the state north of Tehachapi responsible for San Francisco. Indeed, San Francisco seems somewhat divided against itself in the present instance.

Representative Coglan, the leader of its delegation and one of the brightest men in the legislature, although in times past ready to support all sorts of demagogic legislation with his flowery eloquence, is now supporting Speaker Stanton in a really patriotic manner.

The situation is possibly not as serious as it looks from a distance and yet it is bad enough. It is to be hoped that the "big stick" has been wielded successfully.

AT SACRAMENTO.

The hold-over committees of the legislature are looked upon quite justly as "soft soaps," to be distributed among the faithful. The committee appointed four years ago on revenue and taxation, consisting of Messrs. Curtin, Treadwell, Ward and McCartney, has put in bills aggregating $10,000.

The record on the introduction of bills has been beaten. Up to date over 1000 have been introduced in the assembly and the session is yet young.

The passage of the anti-race track bill in both houses with such a small number of votes agianst it, is a surprise even to the most hopeful of its advocates. It is clearly a victory for the people and it was won, not by sending new men to the legislature so much as by the influence of public opinion upon old members, many of whom were found supporting the measure at this time who were either in opposition to similar measures in previous sessions, or gave them only luke warm support. The spirit of reform is in the air and the session will no doubt witness the passage of some measures which while intended to better some present conditions, will prove a disappointment to their supporters. Among these is the direct primary law, which has in committee been shorn of some of its most virile features, particularly the one applying to the election of U. S. senator, which as amended in committee, makes the expression of the people on the subject, a mere recommendation and not mandatory.

Assemblyman Baxter has a bill making the playing of football a misdemeanor and although at first glance the measure appears ridiculous, the representative from Yosemite puts up a good strong argument in its support and claims that it will be passed.

A grand junketing trip is contemplated next summer when it is proposed by a senate bill that five members of the senate and the speaker, speaker pro tem and five members of the assembly, visit the Alaska-Yukon exhibition at the expense of the state. This proposition passed the senate by a vote of 23 to 8; the following members voting against it; Boynton, Walker, McCartney, Miller, Black, Holahan, Campbell and Caminetti. Presumably they will go as an exhibit.

A number of anti-railroad bills have been introduced, one of which and the most radical, is by Senator Cartwright instructing the attorney general to prosecute the railroad companies for participating in the late advance in rates.

Of course, the main interest in legislative proceedings during the past week have centered about the anti-Japanese legislation. Telegrams have been passing between Sacramento and Washington at a great rate. The president has won over Senator Flint to his side and the latter has assisted in keeping the wires hot. While Johnson has vowed that he would not recede from his belicose position, notwithstanding pressure from Roosevelt and Gillette, his supporters were under no such pledge and when the vote came up on the bill to reconsider on Wednesday, it carried by 43 to 34. The bill having passed in the first place by a vote of 41 to 37, which figures were about reversed on Wednesday when the question occurred on the original motion. This probably puts an end to anti-Japanese legislation for the present; but the question will, no doubt, come up again whenever a legislature convenes. Represntative Johnson being well versed in law must know that no such legislation can have any standing in the courts as against the treaty obligations of the government, but he likes to stir up the animals.

Senator Anthony's bill on the same lines in the senate will probably never get out of committee, but Marc will get a chance, probably, to fire off another oration at its funeral.

PATRIOT'S DAY.

A large and appreciative audience witnessed the splendid celebration of Patriot's Day as observed by the Tuesday Afternoon Club on the day of their regular meeting in Odd Fellows' hall. A great American eagle and many flags decorated the hall, and topics were appropriate to the occasion.

Mrs. John Parker, as chairman of the day, arranged the program and presented the first paper, on "Our National Airs," giving history and origin of such favorites as "Yankee Doodle," "Our Country," "Star Spangled Banner," "John Brown" and "Dixie." Mrs. Chase gave "Our Signal Calls;" Mrs. Ezra Parker, "Our Seals and Arms," "Our Flag," also "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," with music accompaniment, were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Charles Temple and pleased all.

Mrs. A. M. Calkins of Long Beach, and recntly of New York, as her introduction to a Glendale audience, presented a talk filled with historical anecdote and poesy, on "Lincoln, the Great-Heart." The event of the day was the address given by Capt. J. M. Wells, who was applauded again and again, as he drew in lucid phrases from the rare fund of rich anecdote and personal memories of our great Lincoln and of the civil war. At some future time, this talented speaker and author will again address the Tuesday Afternoon Club.

Exquisite musical numbers, most thoroughly appreciated by all, were beautifully given by Miss Emma Williams of North Glendale, and Miss Eleanor Clemons of Scranton, Pa., who has most generously during the winter delighted Glendale audiences.

The auspicious occasion closed with congregational singing of our national hymn, and a few remarks by the presiding officer, Mrs. Edgar W. Pack.

THE GRAND JURY PAYS TRIBUTE TO A CITIZEN OF GLENDALE.

On the occasion of its final meeting in Los Angeles last Wednesday, the grand jury passed unanimously the following resolution:

"Resolved, That at this last meeting of the Los Angeles County Grand Jury, we regret the absence of our fellow juror, Mr. A. K. Crawford, and take this occasion to express our appreciation of his valuable services on this body—our sincere sympathy in his affliction and our earnest desire that it may please the All-Wise Ruler of the Universe to speedily restore him to the full possession of his faculties."

Mr. Crawford was one of the nineten members of the grand jury which has been in session for a large portion of the time since August 1st. He was stricken with apoplexy about a month ago.

SMART SOCIETY DANCE.

Mrs. Arthur Campbell was hostess on Friday evening for a smart little society dance, when guests were members of the Glendale Country Club. During the reception hour the unbonneted ladies assisting Mrs. Campbell were Mrs. Leslie C. Brand, Mrs. Daniel Campbell and Mrs. Mary McPeak of Los Angeles.

Exquisite music numbers were thoroughly enjoyed, as also were the beautiful decorations of lilies, English ivy and fragrant spring blossoms artistically displayed. Mrs. Campbell proved herself a tactful and capable hostess and her guests declared this the daintiest affair of the winter. Among the guests were several from Los Angeles. Many of the gowns were the handsomest seen this season.

TRIPLE BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Despite the heavy rainstorm of Sunday night a birthday celebration occurred at the home of Mrs. Albert Varney, Verdugo and Third streets, when the birthdays of Mrs. Sarah Scott, Mr. George Ward and Mrs. John Addison were honored. Among the guests four generations were represented and the affair was really a happy family reunion party. Congratulations were especially showered upon Mrs. Scott, who on that day, February 6th, was eighty-two years old. The beautiful birthday cake, snowily frosted, bore birthday inscriptions minus the candles, as to indicate the birthdays of the three honored guests, one hundred and eighty-six would have been required.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

February 14th, 1909.

(Copyright, 1908, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)

The Apostles Imprisoned.—Acts 5. 17-42.

Golden Text. — Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Matt. v:10.

Verses 17-18.—If a child of God finds himself in prison which is the better thing to do; fret and worry about it, or be glad and rejoice?

If a good man is in prison is that the best place for him for the time?

Can an enemy, or circumstances, or his ignorance, or any other power, other than personal sin, put a Christian in a position, where his highest interests are not being served to the utmost possible? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 19.—By what method did God release the Apostles from prison?

Does God in these days ever adopt similar methods to release his servants from prison, and did he always adopt that miraculous method in those days? (See case of Jesus and John the Baptist.)

May a Christian in prison today, be absolutely sure of his release, if that is necessary for the accomplishment of his work?

Verses 20-21.—Does God now give us direct, and specific, instructions as to our duty, when that is necessary?

Should a Christian always testify in God's Temple when he has the opportunity; or should he wait for special instructions from God?

Verses 22-25.—Is it at all possible that any power can prevail against God, or those in the care of God?

Does God sometimes require us to run the risk of our lives, as these apostles were doing?

Verses 26-28—From the time of Jesus until now, which class of men have most opposed the advance of supernatural Christianity, the people or the priests?

What were the priests afraid would result from the teaching of the Apostles?

Will a true man of God, preacher or layman, ever be angry at the teaching of any sincere religious teacher, no matter what the doctrine taught?

What is the proper attitude to take, to all religous teachers?

Verse 29.—Is the voice of the church the voice of God, or has it ever been so?

What, or who in the last analysis, is the final authority to a human soul?

Verses 30-32.—Is there any power, or authority or threat, which can prevent a man who is indwelt of God, from boldly witnessing for God?

What is the witness to Christians today, of the reality of Christ's death, resurrection and ascension, and of the forgiveness of sins, and life everlasting?

Verse 33.—When the holy (?) heretic persecutors get evidence that their victims are right, and that they are wrong, are they glad or mad?

What was it that "cut" these priests "to the heart" when it should have made their hearts jump for joy?

Verses 34-40.—What is the better way to treat heresy, to let it alone, or oppose it?

Is it not true that the heretics of one generation have been the saints of the next?

Who and what was this man Gamaliel?

How would you characterize Gamaliel's great defence of the Apostles?

Verses 41-42.—Is it as wise for us as it was for the Apostles to rejoice when we suffer for Jesus' sake?

What is the daily duty and privilege of a Christian?

Lesson for Sunday, Feb. 21st, 1909.—Stephen the First Christian Martyr. Acts vi; 1 to 8:3.

CALIFORNIA.

The brown man's foot is on thy shore,
California!
His hand is at thy people's door,
California!
Say, bang him one and draw his gore,
And with his face mop up the floor,
So he won't trouble you no more,
California, oh, California!

Thou wilt not cower in the dust,
California!
Thy yellow boycott shall not rust,
California!
Remember Kearney's sacred trust
To do the Mongols up or bust,
And let them have the knockout thrust,
California, oh, California!

Rise, 'tis the red dawn of the day,
California!
When low browed leaders point the way,
California!
With Grove L. Johnson in the fray,
And friends of Schmitz in bold array,
The Japs must go; but they must stay,
California, oh, California!

We see the blush upon thy cheek,
California!
For thou wert ever bravely meek,
California!
But lo, there surges forth a shriek—
From vale to vale, from peak to peak
Pacific calls to Bitter Creek,
California, oh, California!

We hear the old time Sand Lots hum,
California!
We hear the hoodlum and the bum,
California!
They call the Golden State to come,
And join the rabble and the scum;
But will she do it? Say, by gum,
California, oh, California!

A MONDAY PARTY.

The Glendale Country Club is famed locally for its smart Monday affairs and that of the current week was quite up to expectations. Mrs. A. W. Richardson of Tropico was assisted by Mrs. Claude Pulliam and these capable hostesses provided an evening of genuine and unique enjoyment. After a very merry game, awards fell to Mrs. John White and Mrs. George Woodberry, also to Mr. Pulliam and Mr. V. Price Brown. Score cards and place cards apropos to the season were heart-shaped valentines and pretty decorations were in keeping with the holiday idea. Those who braved the inclement weather declared they were well repaid by their evening of rare enjoyment.

DOINGS OF CHAPTER L.

On Monday evening Mrs. Frank Campbell was hostess for members of Chapter L, P. E. O., when plans for the coming convention in Pasadena were discussed.

On Saturday several of the ladies, the president, Mrs. Frank Albright, among them, assisted as hostesses in Los Angeles at the "Copper Tea Kettle," when out-of-town P. E. O.'s were entertained.

Plans were made and conveyances secured for the meeting on Saturday in Burbank, followed by a luncheon served by the new chapter there, and a musical program furnished by the Glendale chapter. The local chapter has received a special invitation to participate in the entertainment program of the convention, and will probably accept.

NO CURE LIKE AIR AND SUNSHINE

Mrs. A. M. Calkins, the talented guest of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and of Mrs. Robert Morris and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Stanley, contemplates spending a few months in Glendale, with which she is charmed. Mrs. Calkins is and has been for years an instructor in remedial methods of breathing, walking, speaking, tonal proficiency and incidentally of reading and expression. She has successfully taught marching in hospitals and schools, also reading, especially among nurses, who are thus enabled to aid and comfort nervous and convalescent patients. She will probably take up class and individual work while in Glendale. Mrs. Calkins is a strong advocate of fresh air and sunshine as a cure for many ills and claims that if women would eat, breathe and walk properly there would be little call for medical attention.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED.

Lincoln's birthday was appropriately celebrated yesterday forenoon in the Glendale schools, the afternoon being observed as a half-holiday.

At the High School the program was unusually attractive and appropriate to the high occasion.

At the Fourth street school patriotic airs were an especial feature; Miss Mildred Hartsough interpreting several of them on the harp, and Ruth Palmer, Rosie Verdugo, Lavina Banker and others rendered appropriate recitations.

At the Sixth street school there was a flag drill, a dramatization of Barbara Fritchie, a flag song and other appropriate numbers and the pupils sang the grand Battle Hymn of the Republic.

FOUND DEAD.

A German Finn, whose name we have not been able to secure, was found dead on Thursday morning last at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. ——— on Louise street above First. He had been there about two weeks and was a victim of tuberculosis. Mr. and Mrs.——— were absent over night and on their return in the morning found the man dead in bed. Marshal Miller was notified who communicated with the coroner and under his instructions turned the body over to the Pulliam Undertaking company.

K. OF P. TO GIVE DANCE.

The Knights of Pythias, who have a strong organization of 100 members, will give a grand reception and ball at their fine new hall in the Cole and Dick block on Friday evening the 19th. The hall will be decorated most fitingly and attractively for the occasion, which will be no doubt made notable by the managers of the affair.

TROPICO

Watch for Tropico Tag Day.

Mrs. James R. Maxwell and several friends enjoyed "Red Riding Hood," Saturday afternoon.

FOR SALE—Two-room bungalow, must be moved from lot. Apply Box 40, Tropico. 'Phone 782.

Frank Hartley of York, Penn, who with his family are spending the winter at Long Beach, was the guest of D. H. Imler of "Palm Villa" the first of the week.

Among the many Tropicans who attended the Auditorium and witnessed "Red Riding Hood," were Mrs. A. W. Collins, Eleanor and Harwood Collins and Robert Hopkins.

The meetings at the Presbyterian church of this place will continue as usual and the pulpit will be occupied by different preachers until a regular supply has been secured.

George Roper, who for the past seven months has been working the towns of Goldfield and Tonapah, arrived home this week and will spend some time with his family.

Mrs. John Hobbs, accompanied by Mrs. Janet Hobbs, Miss Katherine Hobbs and Miss Dorothy Hobbs, enjoyed "Red Riding Hood" at the Auditorium Saturday afternoon.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Union Bible class at G. A. R. hall every Tuesday evening. Poston Smale will be present at every meeting. Everybody invited.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church was entertained by Mrs. William R. Pratt, at her home on Glendale avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

Tropico Tag Day is on February 13.

A. W. Collins spnt several days this week with his family on Brand boulevard. At present Mr. Collins is working his mines in Rosamond and for several weeks he has been at that place.

Cover Melrose, who for the past several months has been working at his father's mines at the northern town named Ballerat, has returned to his home at this place and will remain here for some time.

Eugene H. Imler entertained the Tropico boys' athletic club at his home, "Palm Villa," Friday evening. Music and a magic lantern exhibition closed the evening's program, following the general club program.

Mrs. S. A. Pollock and her mother, Mrs. E. J. Castle, of Rochester, N. Y., who is her house guest, entertained with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Pollock, Thursday, complimentary to Mrs. Edwin Wilkes and Miss Ellen Wilkes of Los Angeles.

For the past several weeks Allen Davenport has been confined to his home on Glendale avenue with a severe case of grippe-bronchitis. We are glad to report that this popular young man is gradually recovering and that he will probably return to school the beginning of next week.

Mrs and Mrs. J. Ed Smith and son E. B. Smith arrived from Idaho Falls, Idaho, Monday evening and are visiting Mrs. Delia Hapgood of Tropico avenue. Mr. Smith, who is Mrs. Hapgood's brother, had not seen his sister for over twenty years and this visit is a most pleasant and happy one for this long separated sister and brother.

Get in the swim, Tag Day, Tropico.

Mrs. Clyde Carmack gave a pretty little dinner last Friday afternoon at her home on Central avenue to a number of her friends. The guests who attended included Mesdames W. A. Hough, Andrew Stevenson, J. A. Logan, Charles A. Barker, Edward M. Lynch, J. H. Webster, John Hobbs, Ernest J. Morgan and Janet Hobbs.

A pleasant event this week was the party given by Miss Flossie Flanders in Logan's hall last Wednesday evening. A large number of the young ladies' many friends were present and it was a most enjoyable evening spent in games and dancing. The party was given to celebrate the nineteenth birthday of Miss Flanders. An orchestra from Los Angeles furnished music for the occasion.

It was with many expressions of sorrow that the many friends of Mrs. W. R. Light learned of the death of her niece, Miss Wilda Smith, at the home of her mother near Anaheim, Tuesday night. Miss Smith, who was a beautiful young girl, a noble Christian character, visited Mrs. Light and was known and loved by a large circle of friends in Tropico. Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon from the family residence in Orange county.

Come! See the fun—Tag Day!

Tropico Methodist Items.

Last Sunday proved a red letter day in the Methodist church, for the morning service was one of the most pleasant and profitable ever held in the church. At the preaching service quite a number of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. attended, despite the very unpleasant weather. The address by the pastor was given mostly to the life of Abraham Lincoln. A number of flags were draped in different parts of the church and pretty bouquets of flowers were also in evidence.

Immediately before the morning preaching service the ordinance of baptism was administered upon Mr. Prescott, who feels that he has been called to the ministry. Since the first of the year one of the young ladies of the church as expressed her willingness to become a Methodist deaconess, but it is understood that through some family ties she will be unable to enter the work at this time.

President Elder Thompson was present and conducted the quarterly conference at the Methodist church at this place, Wednesday evening. The meeting was well attended by the members of the church and it proved profitable and interesting.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the church held an enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. Pratt on Glendale avenue, Tuesday afternoon. The topic of the afternoon was "Mohammedan Women." The affair was largely attended and it was the occasion of the regular monthly meeting.

TAG DAY.

Today is tag day at Tropico. It is a day which has been looked forward to by the ladies of the Tuesday Afternoon club for the past several weeks, and these ladies, along with a large number of the children of this place, are working hard and are doing everything in their power to make this a day of great success. All over the town, through every street and parkway the youngsters are hurrying about, ever anxious to corral some unsuspecting victim who is unfortunate enough not to have one of the little shipping tags pinned or tied upon the lappel of his coat. The children are going after whomever they may meet with such vigor that it is very seldom that anyone refuses to hand over the necessary dime.

The proceeds of the day's work will be used to purchase new books for the Tropico library. Although the number of books at the library is quite large, the ladies are not satisfied. They are trying hard to make this institution just like every other thing which they have anything to do with—the best of its kind around. The ladies deserve great credit for the energy they are putting forth in this public-spirited work.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL NOTES.

Friday proved to be a very interesting day at the Tropico schools. In each room a pleasing program was given by the pupils of the different grades and in each room the programs were differnt. The song and recitations were appropriate to the occasion, which was to celebrate Lincoln's birthday. In the eighth grade a large portrait of the beloved Lincoln, which was purchased by the pupils of that grade, was hung. A cordial invitation had been extended to the parents of the pupils and other friends, and a goodly number were present on this occasion.

Walter Fishel, a pupil at the school, was injured by being struck by a ball while catching behind the bat, Tuesday morning. The blow of the ball knocked him to the ground, but in several minutes he had recovered sufficiently to go into the school alone. Later reports state that the unfortunate youngster has almost recovered from the blow.

VIOLET LUNCHEON.

Mrs. A. W. Collins entertained with a pretty violet luncheon at her home on Brand boulevard, Wednesday. A pretty arrangement of violets and dainty ribbons graced the center of the table. Mrs. Collins' guests included Mrs. John Seaman, Mrs. Ernest J. Morgan, Mrs. Edward M. Lynch, Mrs. Joseph H. Webster, Mrs. Burt Richardson, Mrs. F. C. Richardson, Mrs. W. H. Halleck and Mrs. Charles Barker.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

By X-Ray.

The Mount Wilson Solar Observatory.

The public certainly showed its appreciation of the invitation extended by the Southern California Academy of Sciences on Monday evening, as a crowded audience attended at Blanchard hall to listen to Prof. Geo. E. Hale tell the story of the work at the solar observatory on Mount Wilson.

In a brief introductory address Mr. Baumgardt, the president of the academy, said he considered the audience very fortunate and indeed highly privileged to have so distinguished an astronomer to address it, more especially as he was starting for Europe in a few weeks to lecture before the Royal Society in London and other illustrious and learned bodies in the various capitals of Europe, finishing up with an address at the Darwin Centenary Celebration to be held at Cambridge in June. Professor Hale will tell the world in these addresses what he is doing with the big telescope at the Southern California observatory, and some of the results of his observations and studies.

Dr. Hale started by a reference to Darwin, stating that the great evolution theory dominates all branches of human investigation at the present day, and the work at the observatory is just one branch of it, namely:

The Evolution of the Stars.

By a study of the sun, under all circumstances, and minute spectroscopic analysis of his light, and by comparing it with light from various substances in the laboratory, and with light coming from the stars, it is possible to arrive at very definite information as to the composition and condition of the starry host, for in this kind of investigation, distance makes no difference, if we can only get the light from a star, we can make it record its story on the photographic plate and in the spectroscope.

Dr. Hale showed many fine views of Mount Wilson and the splendid instruments in the observatory, and gave a lucid explanation of the complicated arrangements of mirrors, lenses and prisms which form the equipment.

In no other observatory are the conditions more favorable for the work of the astronomer, than on Mount Wilson, which was selected only after the most careful examination of many localities. Moreover the big telescope recently set up there with the 60-inch glass, is half as large again as any other in the world, and great results are expected from it in the coming summer.

In referring to the yet larger telescope to be erected by the generosity of Mr. John D. Hooker, Dr. Hale informed his hearers that the big lens cast for it at San Gobain in France, on arrival at Pasadena, was found, unfortunately to be so defective as to be useless. Another will be made by the same firm, and if they cannot succeed Dr. Hale stated that we should have to make the lens here. He thinks we can do it.

As the address of the learned lecturer dealt more with his work and its methods and apparatus, he only briefly referred to the results achieved, the most important of which he considered the definite establishment and exhibition of intimate magnetic relations between the sun and the earth, and in fact, all the planets. This has long been suspected, but is now about to be plainly demonstrated.

With such a splendid astronomical institution right here in our midst, under the direction of men who have already made their mark in the world of science, we of Los Angeles and Southern California should surely know something of, and take more than a passing interest in the sublime science.
